La balandra bonaire

We passed this place snorkeling trip to Klein Bonaire. The room was quite clean and quite clean. The restaurant is in the harbour village development. You have to walk through the development to get to the restaurant. Although the restaurant is open to the public, I guess most customers are the ones who are staying in development. There are private signs everywhere. This is not the most favourable approach. Nevertheless, we were shown a seaside table and had great food. When the sun falls they turn on the underwater lights that attract tons of fish, including a massive tarpon. It is not an inexpensive place, but in my opinion it was worth the experience. La Balandra Restaurant and Bar Great location. The staff were very friendly and helpful. The room was quite clean and quite clean. Expensive, meager portions and so quality. I have a catch of the day, tuna. Served in slices to hide a small amount of fish, a few vegetables came with it, but no dric or starch of any kind. Tuna tasted old. Cost $30. Others in our party were similarly unimpressed. Breakfast here will be done, although the price of the resort, which moved it from 2 to 3 stars for me. Good food on a fake boat. The view from the room was great. Great location, great location, great service. We will go out for a meal of the day, entertaining birds, beautiful scenery and waiting for you to see a local fisherman who brings the fish of the day to the pier. A good selection of dishes from eggs... and bacon pancakes and French toast. I especially liked tropical chicken salad with mango vinaigrette for lunch, and happy hours tapas were very good. The restaurant is the most beautiful environment on the island for dinner and sunset, in my opinion. My husband loved tuna in three ways, remembering it from last year. Valentine's dinner was great with a special menu as well as a nightly choice. One of my favorites was shrimp pesto noodles, perfectly cooked, and one night a special shrimp tortilla tapa snack was top notch. I could have eaten from them. The choice of mini desserts every night was fun. I think I've tried them all now. I would definitely stay here again. I highly recommend La Balandra that special night at Bonaire. For a truly memorable experience, allow us to cook your fresh catch and serve it in a restaurant, room or at a private table on the beach. If you stay in Harbour Village, you will learn to love this place. Here you can start your day (breakfast) and evenings (happy hour). If one does not fancy leaving the village, the food is great, with no huge choice, but always cool and well executed dishes with European and local influence.
